THE BUSINESS OF WORKING IN COMMUNION:
Managing a Person-Centered Business

Friday, August 6

8:00a Breakfast

9:00a Welcome and Introduction

New Video: 2010
The Economy of Communion in North America

Managing a Person-Center Business:
Experiences from this Emerging Culture
Nick Sanna, Finish Line, Mundell & Associates

11:00a Break

11:45a The Seven Aspects, Guidelines for Action, with a Focus on Management; Q&A

12:30p Lunch

2:00p EoCiF Leadership Workshop Results &
A Look at Management Jim Funk

3:15p Break

4:00p The Economy of Communion: Sharing Prosperity in Action Marilou Perez, Phillippines

4:30p Workshop: One-on-one dialogue

5:00p Discussion Groups

6:00p International Website & B2B Website

6:45p Dinner

8:00p Get-together

Saturday, August 7

8:00a Breakfast

9:00a Welcome and Update

Video: Chiara Lubich to the European Union 1999

Academic Panel: One year after Caritas in Veritate
Amy Uelman and Andrew Abela

10:30a Break

11:15a Models of Social Entrepreneurship and Business Updates

12:30p Lunch

2:00p Cafe Con Leche: Marisol Garcia
Each one of us can make a difference

3:00p Break

3:30p Concurrent Workshops

Stephen Carroll – EoC and Social Science Research or
Sue Paroski & Nick Sanna – Case Study Situations
Claude Blanc – Practical Tools for Management

4:45p Break

5:15p Open Forum: Impressions and Feedback

6:00p Dinner

7:30p Towards 2011, 20th anniversary

Get-together

Sunday, August 8

8:30a Breakfast

9:30a Reflection on the Economy of Communion
Video Clip: How the very young live the EoC

Academic Panel, Management Application:
John Gallagher and Jeanne Buckeye

Update from North American dialogues this year: DePaul, Seton Hall, international commissions meeting

Conclusion

11:30p Lunch

Economy of Communion in Freedom 2010 Program

The Business of Working in Communion:

Managing a Person-Centered Business

www.edc-online.org
eocassoc@aol.com
1-845-229-2704

Catholic University of America
Washington DC
August 6-8