

Let's celebrate! Jesus is risen and is with us!

"Not what I want, but what you want."
(Mk 14:36)

Jesus always did the will of his Father in heaven, even when at times it was hard. His Father wanted him to bring love and peace on earth, and the kingdom of God. And after he died, he rose again. We, too, want to do the will of God like Jesus did!

Stone Kesse, from the city of Man, in Africa, wrote her experience. "When I got home from school, my mom took me with her to the market.

After a while, she had to go to the hairdresser, so she left me there to sell our things. She was gone a long time. She was still gone when it was time for a really good movie I wanted to see on TV.

I felt like going home to watch it and just leave everything on the stand, but my little voice told me not to do that, because someone might steal our things.

So I listened to the voice and said, 'This is for you, Jesus.' I stayed there and by the time my mom returned, I had sold almost everything! She was really happy!"
