

If we love, we bring happiness everywhere

“Do not conform yourselves to this age but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may understand what is the will of God, what is good and pleasing and perfect.” (Rm 12, 2)

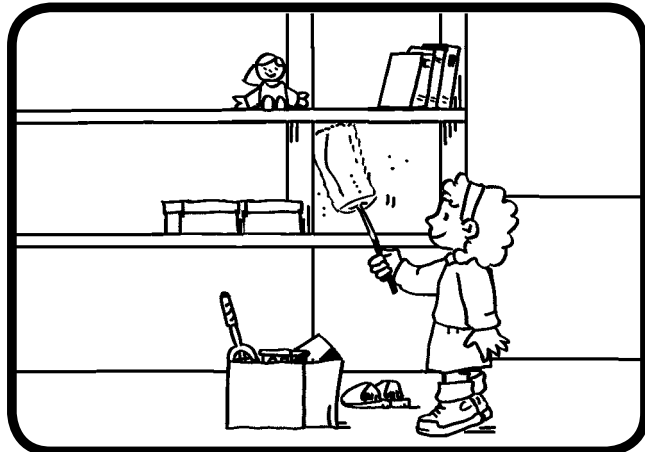

“Whoever wants to be great in the kingdom of heaven has to be the servant of all.” In fact, Jesus came to serve and give his life for others.

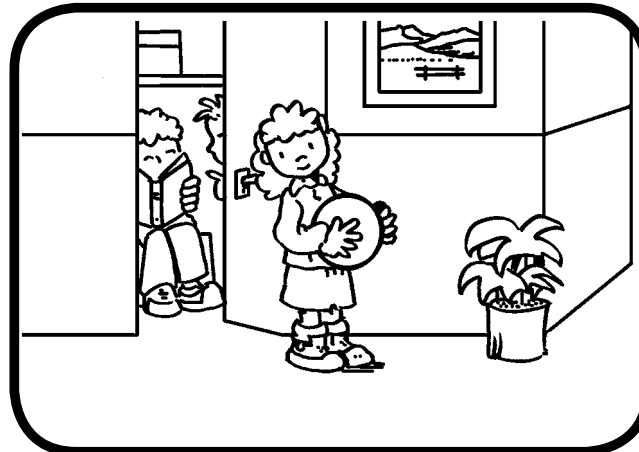

One day a woman came up to Jesus with her two sons and said, “Lord, let my two sons sit with you in heaven, one on your right side and the other on your left.” Jesus explained to her that to reach heaven we have to try very hard to love others as much as we can. Then he said, Elena Endo is six years old. She is a Gen 4 from Japan. One day when she came home from kindergarten, her brother and her sister hadn't come home yet. She went in their room and saw that it was very messy.

Elena remembered that her brother was bringing some friends home with him, so she started to clean up the room and dust everything with a lot of love, thinking that she was doing it for Jesus. When her brother got home with his friends she heard them laughing in his room and she thought,

“How beautiful it is to make Jesus happy!”

