

Let's follow the voice of Jesus and love right way!

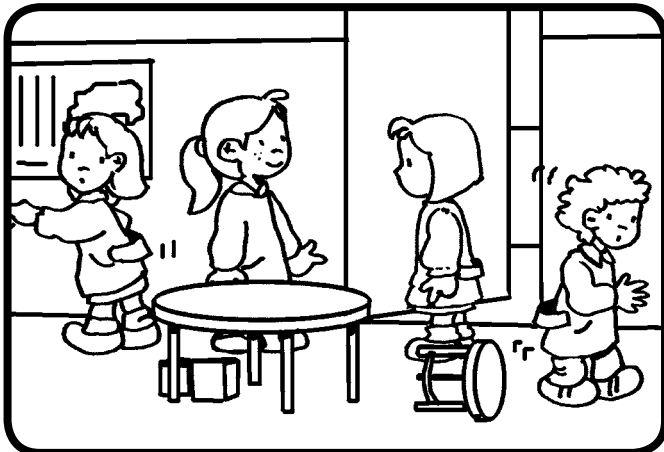

"Follow me."
 (Mt 9,9)

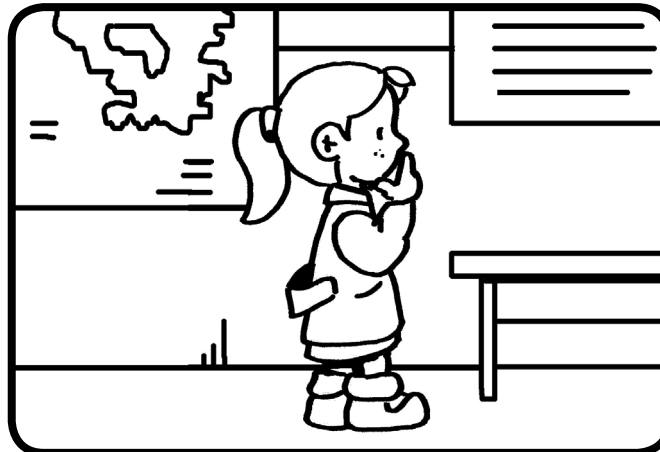

Zaccheus was a man who got rich by stealing money from the poor people who were paying high taxes to him. But when he heard that Jesus was in his city, he wanted to meet him. He was very short so he couldn't see over the crowd. He decided to climb up a tree. Jesus saw him up there and told him to come down because he wanted to go to his house.

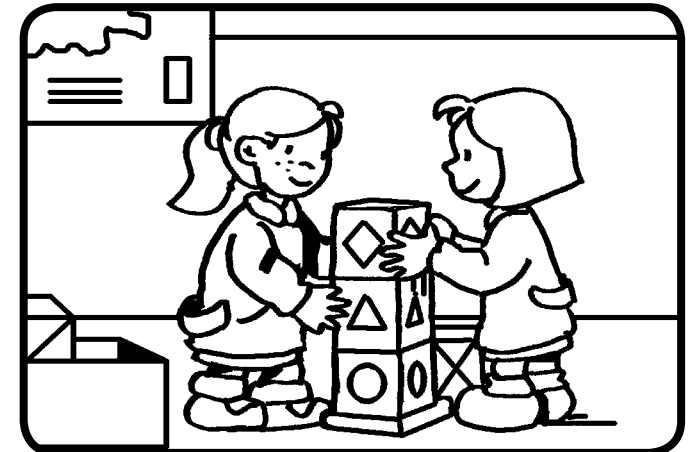

Zaccheus was so happy and in that moment he understood that what he had been doing was wrong. He promised Jesus he would give back four times what he had stolen from the people. He wanted to follow Jesus and give half of all his money and possessions to the poor.

Anna from Oslo in Norway was at school and one of her friends told the class that she had a particular illness. Immediately everyone kept away from her and wouldn't play with her.

Anna wanted to do the same but a voice inside told her, "You have to love!" Anna ran over to her and started playing with her. The girl was so happy!

During a gen 4 meeting Anna told her experience and said that for the rest of her life she always wants to follow Jesus.
